Time

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

a time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Jon: Well, our four long years are over (it's about time)
I hope I see you this summer.

Homecoming Activities Are High-

It takes ideas and a lot of hard work to make Homecoming a success. This year everyone could feel the mood and spirit brought on with a successful Homecoming. The Pep Club sponsored a bonfire the night before the big day. This helped to build spirit and enthusiasm for the football team.

The Homecoming day began at 3 p.m. with a pep rally. The cheerleaders lead the crowd in yells, the football team was introduced, and a poem was read about each of the queen candidates.

Following the pep rally was the parade. A total of 12 floats made up the parade, and many hours of preparation were spent to make it the best ever.

The 1966 Homecoming was perfect in everyway except for the weather.

The Junior Safety Council spent many hours on their float which added a serious note to the parade.

The junior class "Butchered the Chicks" in their float which was driven by Jim King.

lighted with the Crowning of the Queen

The suspense of the Homecoming week came to a climax during the halftime of the Oelwein - New Hampton football game. It was a windy, raining night, but yet beautiful in the eyes of the spectators, and a warmth was glowing in the hearts of the candidates. The climax was the naming of Becky McLeish as Homecoming Queen for 1966. Cheryl McIntosh, 1965 Homecoming Queen, placed the crown on Becky's head. Chuck Gardner senior class president, gave her the traditional kiss and a dozen red roses.

The queen and her attendants danced with their escorts to the theme song, "Rhapsody in Blue."

Queen Becky Reigns Over

The traditional homecoming dance was held after a 36-0 victory over New Hampton. The theme of the dance was "Rhapsody in Blue." The junior class was responsible for the beautiful decorations to carry out the theme. The added attraction of the evening was when Mr. Haas squashed a cockroach that was crawling across the floor.

the Homecoming Dance

Attendant, Nancy Rath and her escort, Jon Reckhemmer, lead the royal procession to the throne.

This year was the first time that homecoming was held at the high school. The new cafeteria was an excellent place and a capacity crowd was present.

Faith Walrod Crowned

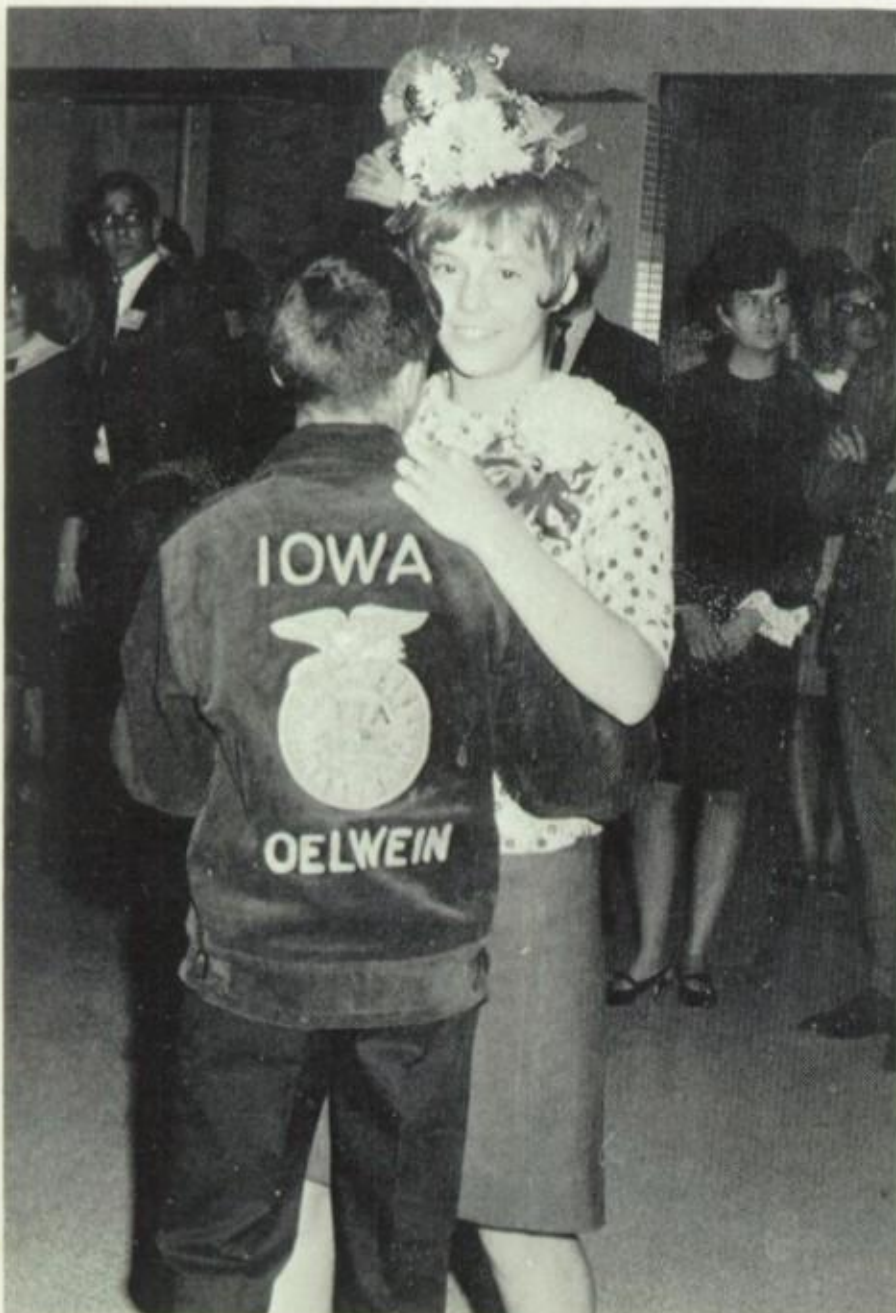

Faith Walrod was chosen as the 1966 Harvest Ball Queen, after students voted by purchasing a ticket for the annual Harvest Ball. Faith was the freshman candidate. Pam Smith represented the senior class, Nancy Olander the junior class, and Debbie Borland the sophomore class.

Faith was crowned by the 1965 Queen, Joan Dawson.

The Harvest Ball is sponsored by the FFA.

Many crowd around as freshman Faith Waldrod is crowned by Joan Dawson.

The excitement being over, everyone gets back to the dancing. John Goege, Pam McKnight and Chris Thiele seem to be having a good time.

Henning Vilhelmsen Spends School Year

at O.C.H.S.

During their annual Christmas program the Student Council honored Henning. Shown presenting him with a Christmas gift from the council is council member Kathi Kendall.

Denmark is the home of our Foreign Exchange Student for this year. He is eighteen year old Henning Vilhelmsen and he makes his home in Oelwein with the Paul Ruse family.

Henning stated that he found the United States much different from his own country, but he was enjoying every minute of his stay here.

He is kept very busy making various speeches and appearances in the community as well as taking four subjects at school. He is also a member of the Student Council and the band.

Henning will stay in Oelwein until late June when he will begin his trip back to Denmark.

Henning takes time out from his busy schedule to talk to Mrs. James Stewart, a substitute teacher at O.C.H.S.

"Superman" Comes to O.C.H.S.

The musical "Superman" was presented by the vocal music department, under the direction of Mr. Thomsen. The performances were March 9 and 11. Jon Proctor played the role of Superman and Clark Kent. Dave Hill was Jim Morgan and Lois Lane was portrayed by Kathy Frieden.

Jim King, who plays Max, is being held prisoner by the Lings.

Kathy Frieden finds an easy and relaxing way to learn her lines.

Bill Allen King of Sadie Hawkins Dance

Bill Allen has just been crowned Sadie Hawkins King and was given a gift of a big red barrel by his escort Kathi Kendall.

Last year the Student Council started a new tradition in our school by having a Sadie Hawkins Dance. This year the Council kept with the tradition and held the dance on February 7, 1967. The dance was held in the high school cafeteria.

Each class nominated three candidates to vie for the honor of Sadie Hawkins King. Those boys were: sophomores, Terry Williams, Craig McIntosh, Alan Jamison, and Jon James; juniors, Craig Hamilton, Dave Esch and Dave Gearhart; and seniors, Bob Rasmussen, Henning Vilhelmsen and Bill Allen.

Bill Allen was chosen to reign as king by the entire student body in an election earlier that day.

All the candidates were pulled to the front of the cafeteria by girls who were their slaves for the night. Escorts were Kathi Kendall, Becky McLeish, Rhonda Renfrow, Ann Suffern, Marianne Mike, Mary Thiele, Eleanor Henderson, Nancy Olander, Pennie Hankins and Debbie Borland.

Each attendant to the king was presented with a corn cob pipe by Cindy Hennager. Bill Allen was crowned by Chuck Gardner who gave him a traditional kiss!

Chuck Gardner, who reigned as Sadie Hawkins King in 1966, was escorted in the ceremonies by Susan McIntosh as students of O.C.H.S. applaud.

The suspense rises as all the candidates are lined up waiting for the name of the king to be announced. In the center is Cindy Hennager who is presenting a cornucopia to Ann Suffern. She was the escort of Terry Williams.

Karen Crandall, Joe Hannan, and Penny Smith, who are watching the ceremonies, seemed to have tired of sitting and assumed a comfortable position on the floor.

Music for the dance was provided by the "High Societies" a band from O.C.H.S. Members are Mark Kroeger, Dave Hill, Mark Nicolay, Dick Emery and Harley Williams.

Students Take Over City

On April 18, 1966, students from both Oelwein Community and Sacred Heart took over the running of the city government. This was the observance of the annual Young Citizens Day. Those students holding office were Mayor, Chuck Gardner; Mayor Pro-tem John Heinle; Councilmen Ruth O'Brien, Jim Jarchow, Harry Rueber, Becky McLeish, Susi Shirk, Mike Stiles, and Jim Steger. Those from O.C.H.S. holding various other positions were Bob Bigley, Mick Connor, Kathi Kendall, Dave Ruse, Donna Destival, Swan McBride, Greg James, Gordon Miller, Cindy Hennegar, Bob Rasmussen, Kathy Frieden, Pam Smith, Scott McKissick, Jon Rechkemmer, and Dave Miller.

Chuck Gardner, mayor for the day is receiving a certificate of award and congratulations from a Chamber of Commerce member as he receives applause from Mayor McCarthy and the audience.

Selecting people to hold certain offices for Young Citizens Day was one of the first jobs of Mayor Chuck Gardner and his councilmen. They met at the City Hall on Saturday morning, April 16, to discuss the various activities of the day as well as select those who would hold offices. The students participating began the day with the inauguration of the mayor and then spent the afternoon on their respective jobs. The day was topped off with a banquet for students and Chamber members.

Two of Santa's reindeer argue over who is Rudolph, but Mr. Losen finally wins because his nose lights up. There's always one thing a chemistry teacher might have over the principal.

Faculty Presents the Christmas Program

Santa Claus, played by Mr. Hershey, and Mrs. Claus, played by Mrs. or a Mr. Hutchison, entertained the student body.

The Christmas program presented by the faculty will long be remembered.

The chorus started the program with singing a various number of Christmas songs. Bob Rasmussen, vice-president of the student council, gave a reading from the Bible and foreign exchange student, Henning Vilhelmsen told of Christmas in Denmark. Christmas gifts were presented to Henning, Mr. Haas, the cooks and the custodians.

Then the fun began as the faculty presented their Christmas skit. Santa Claus also read his annual Christmas list.

During the program, Bob Rasmussen and Kathi Kendall presented Mr. Haas with a lovely poinsetta.

Through a flower decked archway, and you're on your way down Memory Lane as Karen Kraft and her date are demonstrating.

Upon entering the door they stand and gaze at the beautiful decorations.

This group of Prom-goers anxiously awaits the start of the dance.

An air of excitement and joy fills the room as the Junior-Senior Prom of 1966 begins.

Gordon Miller and Kathy Frieden were caught by the camera as they strolled by the lake.

That Wonderful Year 1966

Sets Theme for Prom

The highlight of any year is the Junior-Senior Prom and 1966 was no exception.

The traditional senior banquet began at 6:30 at the Moose Country Home on May 27, 1966 and officially began a full twelve hours of fun and excitement for all.

"That Wonderful Year" was the theme of the prom, and the decoration committee, led by Jane Proctor, helped make the prom one we would long remember. A flowered arch opened a memory lane; and smiles, as well as a few tears, could be seen on the faces of all those who walked down the lane to recapture beloved moments of the 1965-66 school year.

Live music was provided by the "Dark Knights" who were enjoyed by all. Even the elaborate formals, up-swept hair, corsages, boutonnieres, heels, and dinner jackets didn't keep the prom-goers from a few hectic dances. Cookies and punch were served for those who would rather eat than dance.

Later the merchants sponsored a free show "Paradise Hawaiian Style" at the Grand Theatre and dancing and games at the Uptown Elks. Jack Mihall was disc jockey for the event. All the post-prom activities were chaperoned by parents. Many prizes donated by merchants were given away.

All kinds of food could be found the entire night, so no prom-goer was left hungry. A 5:00 a.m. breakfast roped off the affair and at 5:45, 300 teenagers who were tired but happy, went back to their homes and made Prom 1966 one more addition to Memory Lane.

The grand march beginning the dance was lead down the Memory Lane. The Memory Lane was lined with lamps and a picket fence.

The wishing well, symbolizing the hopes for the future, added a special attraction. Susan Burke and Dennis Kjar make their wish.

The refreshments were served by the mothers of the students. Mrs. Arthur Johnson pours a glass of punch for David Mulder and Lynda McKnight.

Outside the Moose Country Home, chaperones and students enjoyed the spring evening.

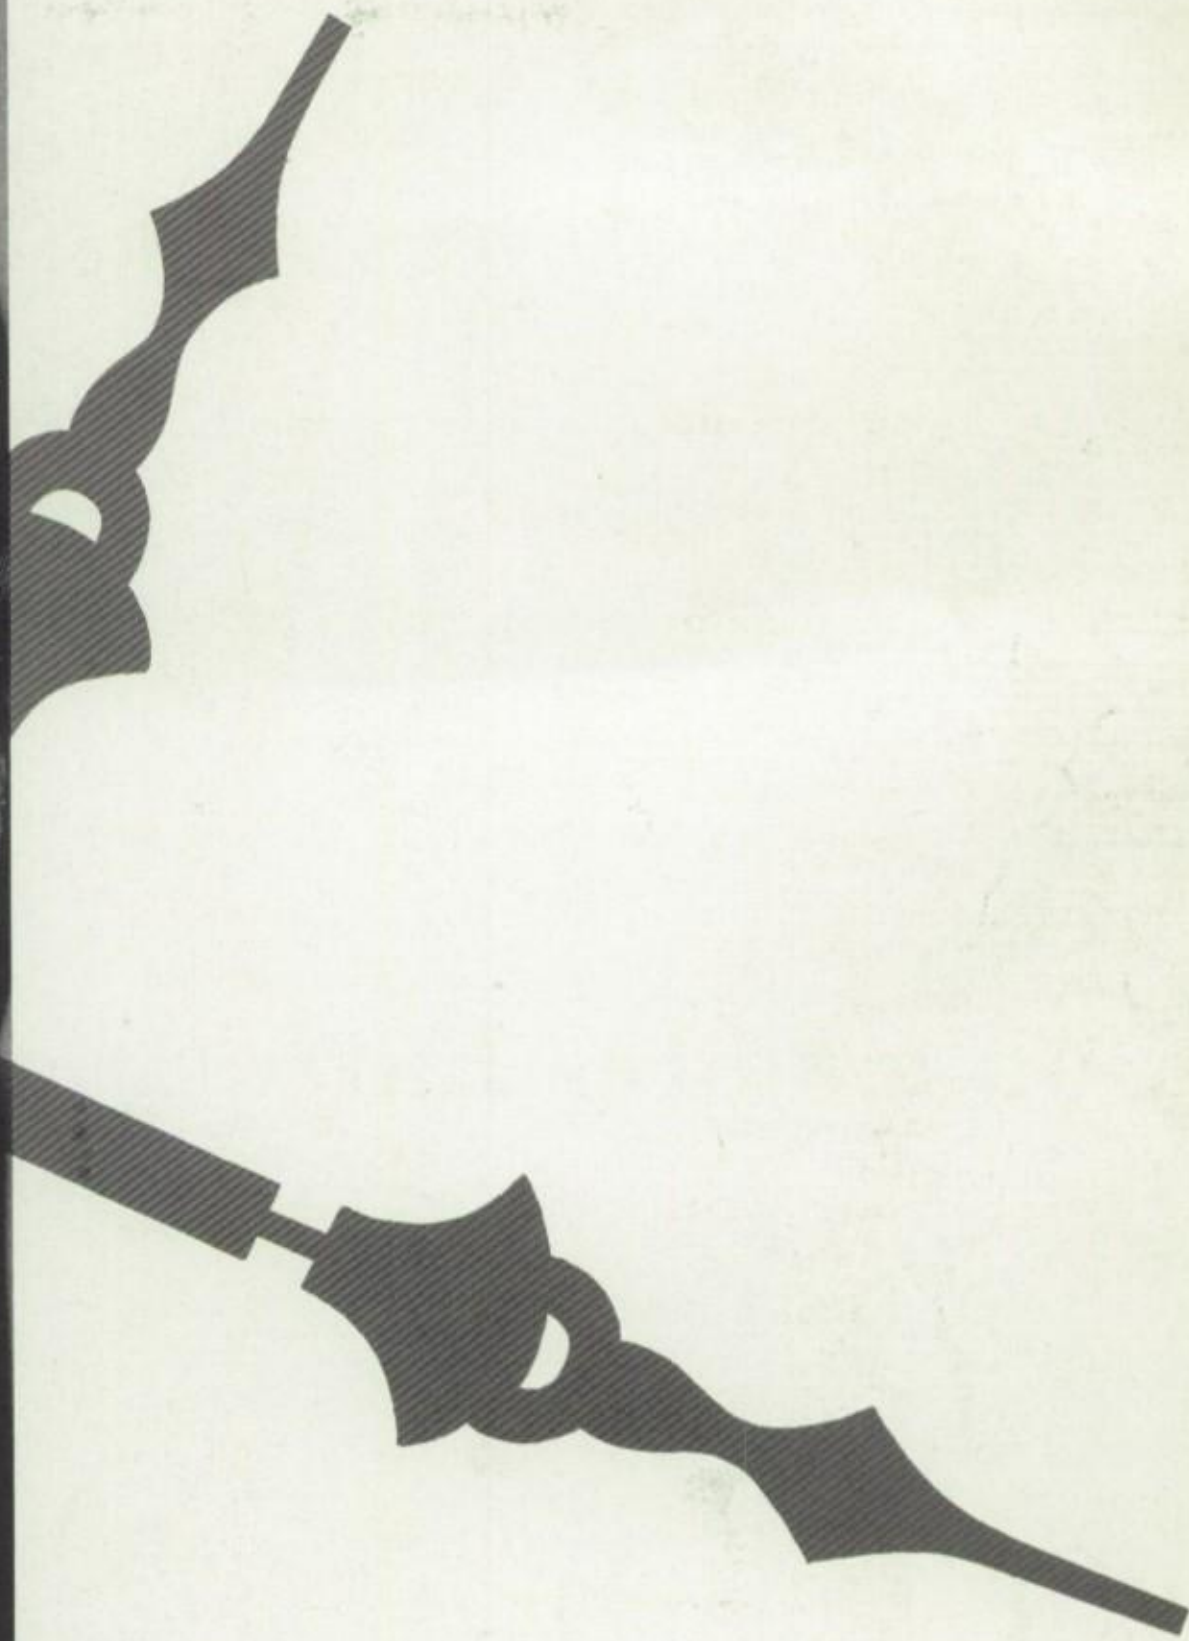

Music for the evening 'was provided by the Dark Knights, a group from Cedar Falls.

Dave Ruse and Bob Bigley lend a helping hand in decorating for the prom. The all out effort of each individual was well rewarded when the decorating was finally completed.

The junior class spent many long hours of work to decorate for the prom. Tom McGinnis was a big help with the art work.

Seniors Remember the Year Gone by Senior student, Penny Smith, never misses a meal served by the hot lunch cooks.

Jim Fortsch gave a great effort at the low hurdles for the Oelwein track team.

Many trials and tribulations went into the building of the senior class Homecoming float. There was much argument whether the float was a rat or a skunk, right Bob?

Cindy Hennager and Carol Schuchmann helped in the decorating for prom. Carol Schuchmann spent her senior year as a foreign exchange student to Austria. This was the first student from O.C.H.S. to spend a full school year as an exchange student. Carol applied to the AFS program her junior year. Carol's Austrian parents were Dr. and Mrs. Freiderich. She also had a 17 year old Austrian sister, Astrid Grohs. Carol left for Austria on August 19 and returned home in July.

Tom Wardell plays the timpini in the concert band. He also plays the trap drums in the dance band. Tom is a very active band member.

Susi Shirk, another senior at O.C.H.S., spent her second semester as a page to the House of Representatives in Des Moines. She kept in close contact with her O.C.H.S. teachers to receive credit for her courses.

Student Council Sponsored AFS Weekend

The Student Council, though made up of only 28 students, is an effective organization at O.C.H.S. Throughout the year they sponsored many activities.

The weekend of November 5 marked "AFS Weekend" sponsored by the Council. Foreign exchange students from Chile, Belgium, South Africa, Cyprus, South Vietnam and Henning Vilhelmson, our own foreign student from Denmark, were special guests along with their American brothers and sisters. A coke party at the Lynn Hill residence started off the course of events. That night the guests were entertained with music and dancing at the annual Harvest Ball. Sunday afternoon a social hour was held for the students and their American families.

Dave Miller, president, presides at all student council meetings. Faculty advisors sit in on the meetings and add their suggestions as a help to the council.

Student council meets in regular sessions every two weeks during the school day.

The AFS Advisory Council and our Student Council helped to sponsor the AFS Weekend in Oelwein this year. Henning seems to be enjoying himself dancing with one of the area foreign exchange students at the Harvest Ball.

Annual Staff Records the School Year of 67

The "Ghost 67" took a more modern look this year. The sponsor, Mrs. Jane Eason, and the co-editors worked to put more extras in the Ghost that it had never seen in the past.

Co-editors, Jane Proctor and Kathi Kendall, attended a workshop at Starmont High School in September to learn techniques and different aspects of an annual.

"Picture Day" was conducted in the first week of October with Winter Photography in charge.

Ken Winter from Winter Photography and Jane Proctor line up the formal pictures that were taken on picture day.

Dave Fox, photographer for the staff, was seen many days with camera in hand. He was aided by Buz Carpenter in the duties of taking and developing the pictures.

"The Husky Register" Edited Weekly by the News Staff

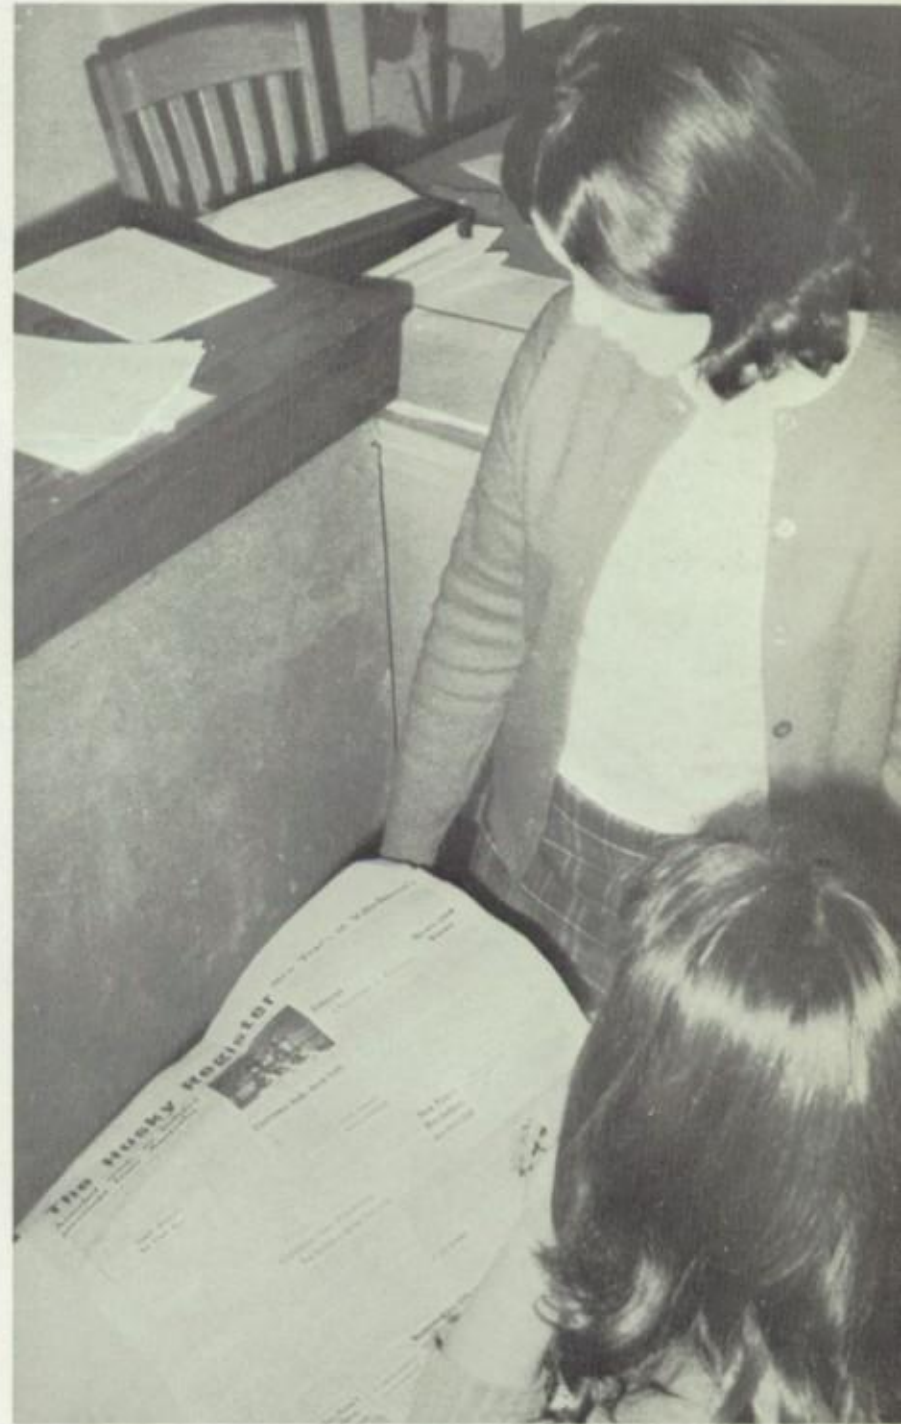

The news staff learned about journalism a practical, lab way by publishing the Husky Register every Monday in the "Oelwein Daily Register."

The staff attended a Press Convention at the Iowa State University at Ames in October. Each person could attend classes of instruction in his particular interest.

Co-editors for the paper were Becky McLeish and Patsy Ingles. The staff is instructed by Mrs. Jane Eason.

One of the most important jobs of the news staff is to carefully proof read the columns that will be published. Susan Larson and Kathi Kendall are doing just that.

Lettermen Form

O'Club

The O'Club members are the athletic letter winners of O.C.H.S. Their objectives are the promotion of good sportsmanship and support of the teams.

A new addition to this year's club was girls. The boys voted by popular demand to allow the girls, who had won their letters in golf, into the organization.

This year the athletic department added a new movie camera and projector to its equipment. To raise money for film and other expenses the O'Club operated a coat check for activities held in the new gym. This has been helpful to both the O'Club and the sports fans.

Officers for this year are: Chuck Gardner, president; Bill Allen, vice-president; Tony Perez, secretary; Scott McKissick, treasurer; and Skippy Borland, sergeant of arms. Mr. Terry Stevens is the sponsor of the club.

The O'Club coat check was located in the lobby of the new section added to the school. Dave Esch is ready to assist any sports fan with his or her coat.

World Through Understanding

The girls participating in Y-Teens this year are taking part in many projects. Several interested members took part in a trip to West Liberty, Iowa in October to a Y-Teen Convention. In November the Y-Teens held their initiation with a potluck supper. The girls have been busy all year working on "service projects" such as making social visits to the elder citizens of our community. In December the Y-Teens held a Father-Daughter banquet in which each girl brought her father as a guest.

On February 11 the organization took a bus to Des Moines for the Foreign Student Day held at the Veteran Memorial Auditorium.

The Y-Teens hold a regular meeting at least once or twice a month on Wednesday.

Miss Hunter attentively watches a movie which she is showing to a group of Y-Teens.

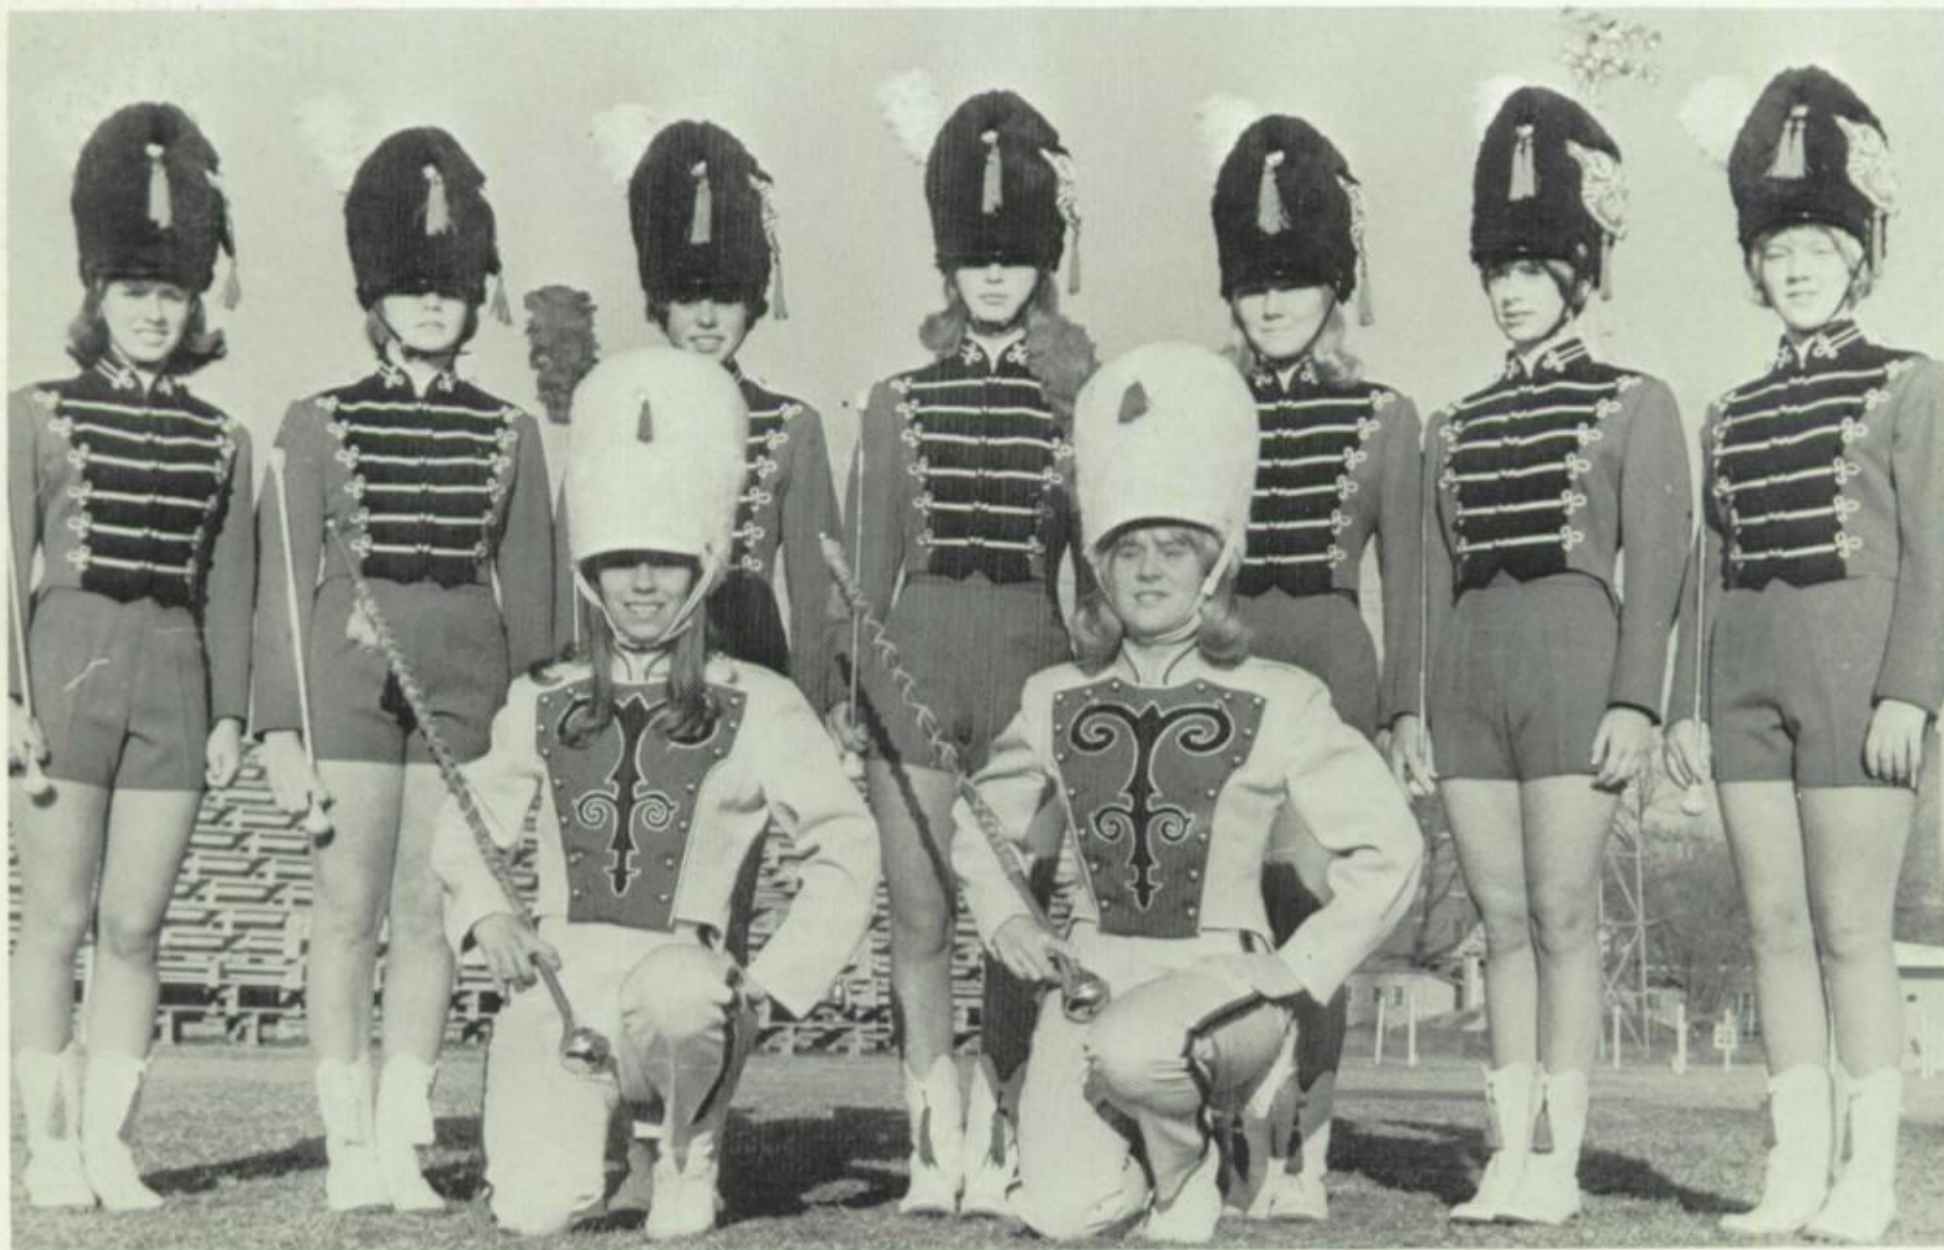

New Director Teaches Band

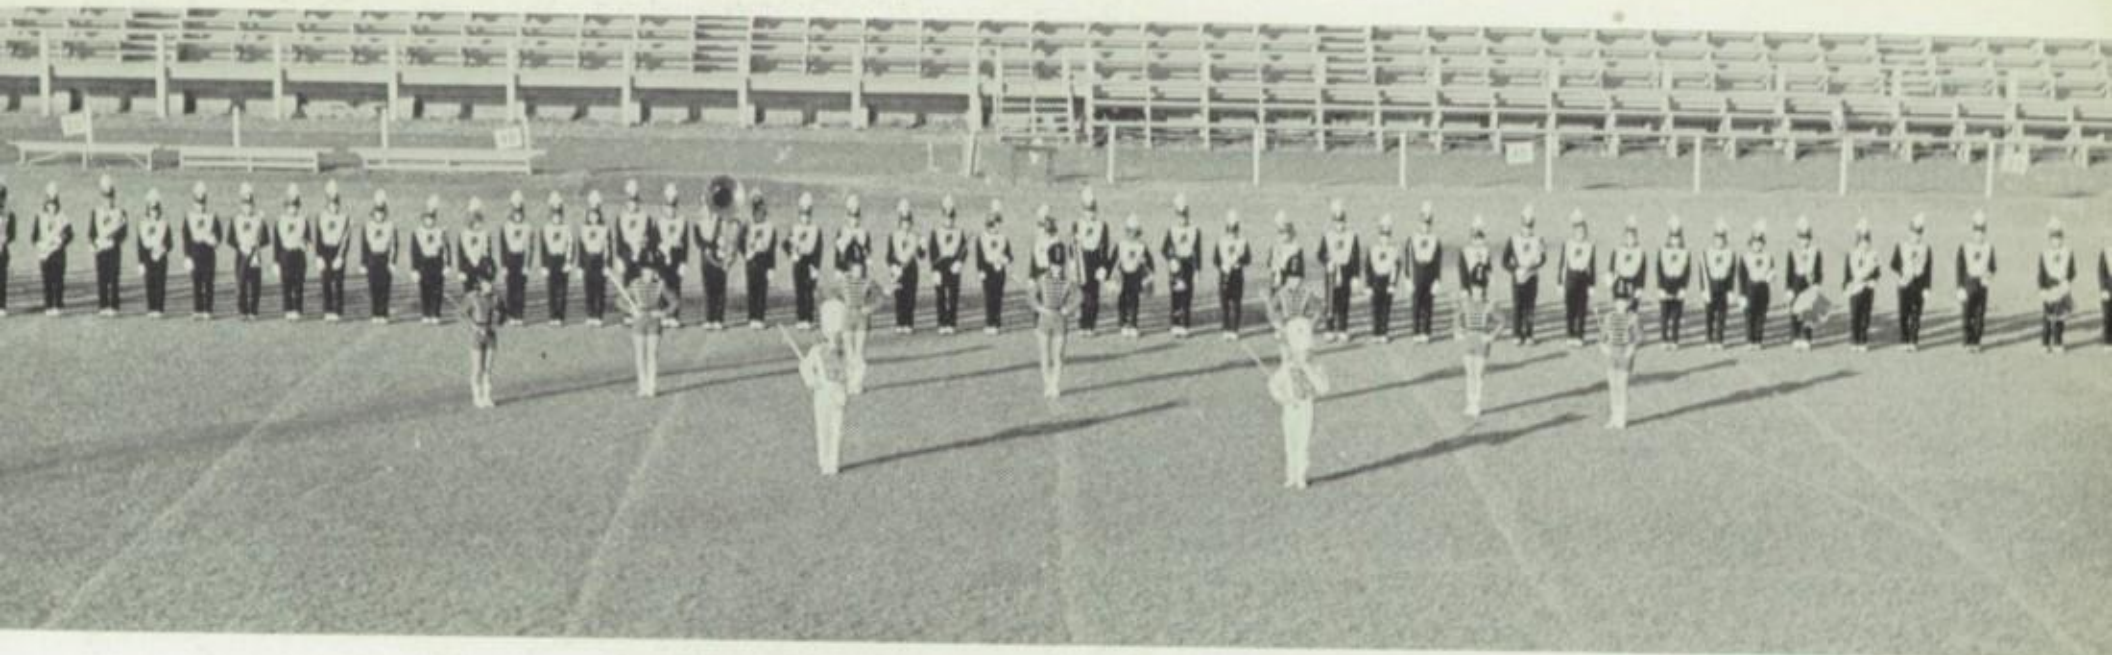

Attention! Hup two!! These shouts could be heard each morning as the band began practicing for their coming show. Every morning they could be seen working diligently despite the cold, wind, rain or fog. The new director, Mr. Keith Nash, brought many new and interesting ideas to the band. Mr. Nash was formerly from Alden, Iowa.

The first performance featured a dragon who was the villain in the story, "Little Red Kimono Hood."

The band began each performance in this formation, playing such tunes as "Mame", "St. Louis Blues", and "Football Melody."

Marching Band Performs

Jodie Berry was featured during halftime with an original baton routine. Two other twirlers also gave a routine. They were Becky McLeish and Rhonda Renfrow.

During Halftime

The bands final performance was highlighted with the appearance of that dynamic dual, Batman and Robin. But Robin never made it!

Instrumentalists Work Toward Perfection

The concert band, under the direction of Mr. Keith Nash, presented their annual winter concert on January 22. The concert was held in the new gymnasium and had an exceptionally large crowd in attendance. The band also traveled to Waterloo to appear at the McElroy auditorium at the hockey game.

This year a group of exchange concerts has been set up with Decorah. This is something new for the band.

The spring concert held in May, was a combination of instrumental and vocal selections.

The band was well represented in both solo-ensemble and the large groups contest.

The flute players were featured in the winter concert in the selection of "Flute Cocktail." Gwen Lockhart and Julie Kaufman were also featured in "Red's White and Blue March", a piccolo and flute duet.

Each section of instruments meets once a week for a band lesson. Here the saxophones are having one of their fun filled lessons.

Vocalists Harmonize in Chorus

The chorus is under the direction of a new man this year and he is Mr. John Thomson. In the fall he held tryouts and 50 students were chosen for a place in the group. They have performed for various occasions throughout the year.

Their first performance was a Christmas Concert on December 23 in the high school gym. They also performed several selections on Palm Sunday.

Their biggest event of the school year was a musical entitled "Superman".

Mr. Thomson directs the chorus during the Christmas program held seventh hour for the students and faculty.

Students Work As Librarians

Mrs. Scovel is the new librarian at O.C.H.S. this year. She previously had been the librarian at Junior High.

Fourteen librarians are working during each period of the day, five days a week. If you wish to study in the library, you must have a pass from a teacher.

Distributive Education Students at Work

In the fall Bob Rasmussen was elected State DECA President at a two day convention held in Des Moines, Iowa. This was a great honor for Oelwein as this is only the second year for Distributive Education in Oelwein.

Merlin Bartels ran for treasurer at the convention and was defeated by a very small margin.

Distributive Education is in its second year in Oelwein and is enlarging all the time. Mr. Collins recently moved his classes, which meet two hours a day into new facilities in the high school. Students work at downtown business establishments from one to five each afternoon.

Throughout the afternoons Deanna Ohl, Charlene Anderson, and Susi Fish are found working in various departments of Schuchman's. They are employed through the D.E. program.

Working at the meat counter at Fred's Super Valu isn't as easy as you may think. You can just ask Richard Jensen and Richard Brehm, who are employed through the D.E. program.

Tom Lickiss can often be seen working behind a counter at Sam's Clothing Store. He is another student employee.

FFA Is Active Throughout Year

The FFA is one of the most active organizations at O. C. H. S. The group journeyed to East Moline, Illinois, to visit the John Deere Administration Building. In October they attended the state Corn Picking Contest at Marion. They also visited the Tri-State Breeding Farm at Wesby, Wisconsin.

Fairs were the scene for many of the boys. Phil Damge won the supreme grand champion award at the Dairy Cattle Congress and Larry Graf took second place for his yearling bull at the Buchanan County Fair.

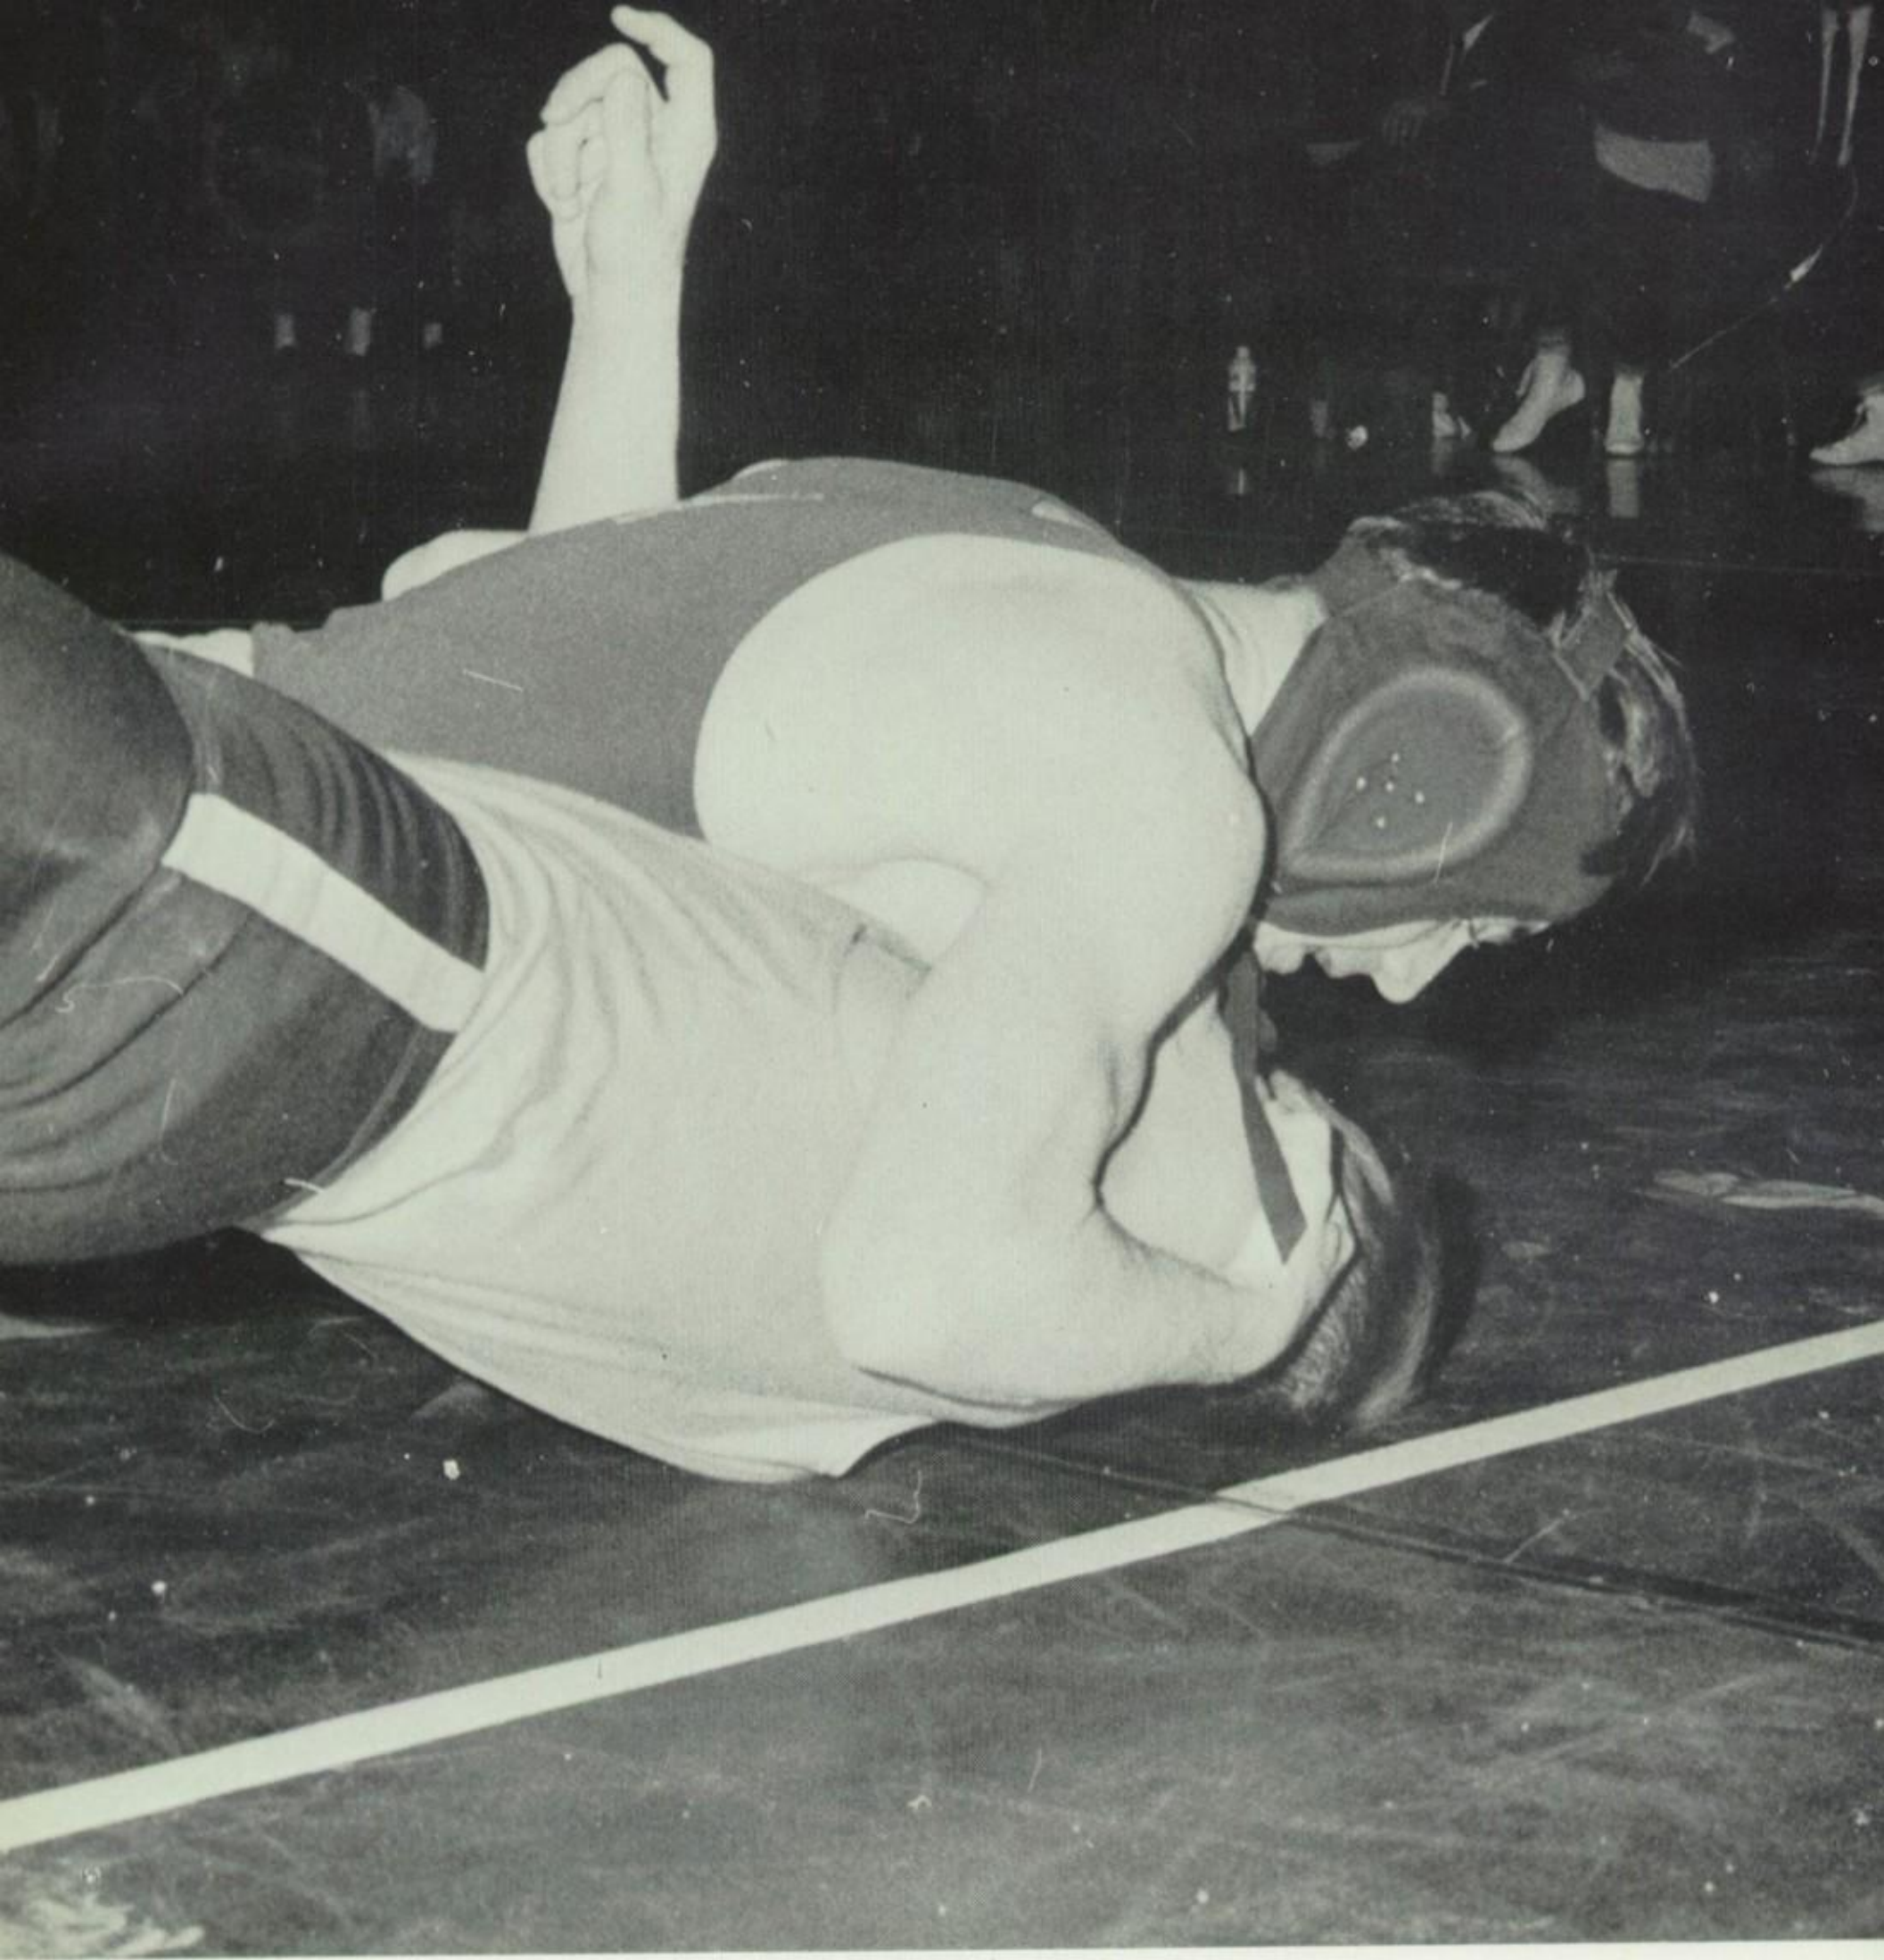

Jerry Morey, Stephen Stohr, and Douglas Smith attended the National FFA Convention at Kansas City. Larry Graf, Douglas Smith, and Bruce Buxton were present for the State FFA Convention at Cedar Rapids.

January 19 the FFA held a father-son chili supper. A parent-son banquet was held during National FFA Week, February 18-25.

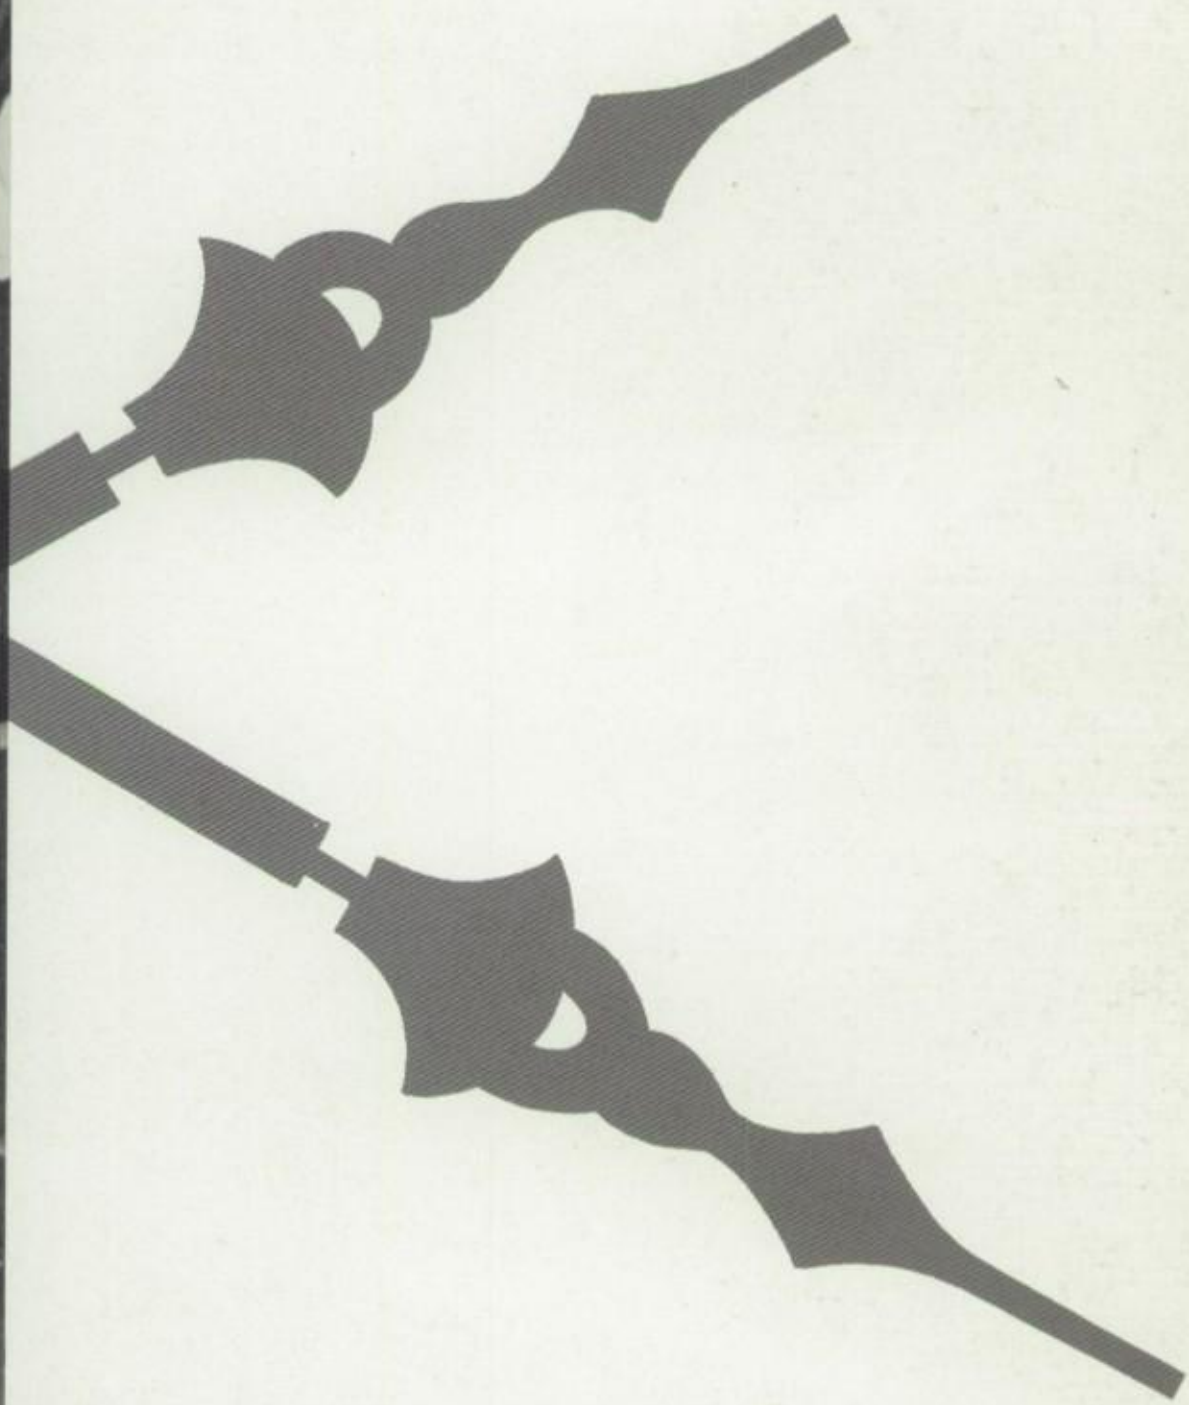

On February 25, the organization competed at Waukon at the sub-district contest. This contest involved public speaking, parliamentary procedure, and many other things.

Other activities throughout the year included growing test blocks of corn, pigeon hunts, selling seed and FFA calendars, and cutting weeds on dangerous intersections.

Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

The varsity cheerleaders helped to bring more spirit and enthusiasm to the student body. Four of the girls attended a cheerleading camp during the summer and received awards for their cheerleading ability.

The six girls organized and carried out pep rallies throughout the athletic season. The cheerleaders also sponsored the selling of mums at homecoming. At the NEIC wrestling tournament they held a cheerleaders' banquet for all of the conference cheerleaders.

A cheerleader has many duties but the most important is keeping the students enthused and yelling during an athletic event and these girls really did their job.

Penny Smith holds hands with one of the new basketball players who was present for several of the games.

Alternate cheerleader, Pat Franzen, leads the school song during a pep rally.

This year the cheers were led by Connie Chase, Jane Proctor, Elise Kraft, Susan McIntosh, Bev Ernst and Penny Smith.

Sophomores Cheerleaders

Show Pep

The sophomore cheerleaders meet and practice every day before the games. Their hard work has paid off as they do some fine cheering at all games.

Even during the varsity games, the sophomore cheerleaders keep right on yelling the Huskies on to victory.

The sophomore cheerleaders and varsity cheerleaders get together for a victory cheer between the two games.

The sophomore cheerleaders include: Bernie Reedy, Judy Burns, Joan Dawson, Marianne Mike, Debbie Borland and Dixie Sanders.

The cheerleaders led the student body in singing the school song during the pep rallies.

Pep Rallies Boost Teams , on to Victory

Nothing helps more than a pep rally to fill both the teams and the students with enthusiasm for the coming game. The cheerleaders planned and carried out many successful rallies.

Skits, pep talk by the coaches and team members, and teaching the students new cheers were a part of the rallies.

The first pep assembly in the new gym was held December 13.

Basketball coach, Mr. Bob Downs, gave several talks during the basketball season.

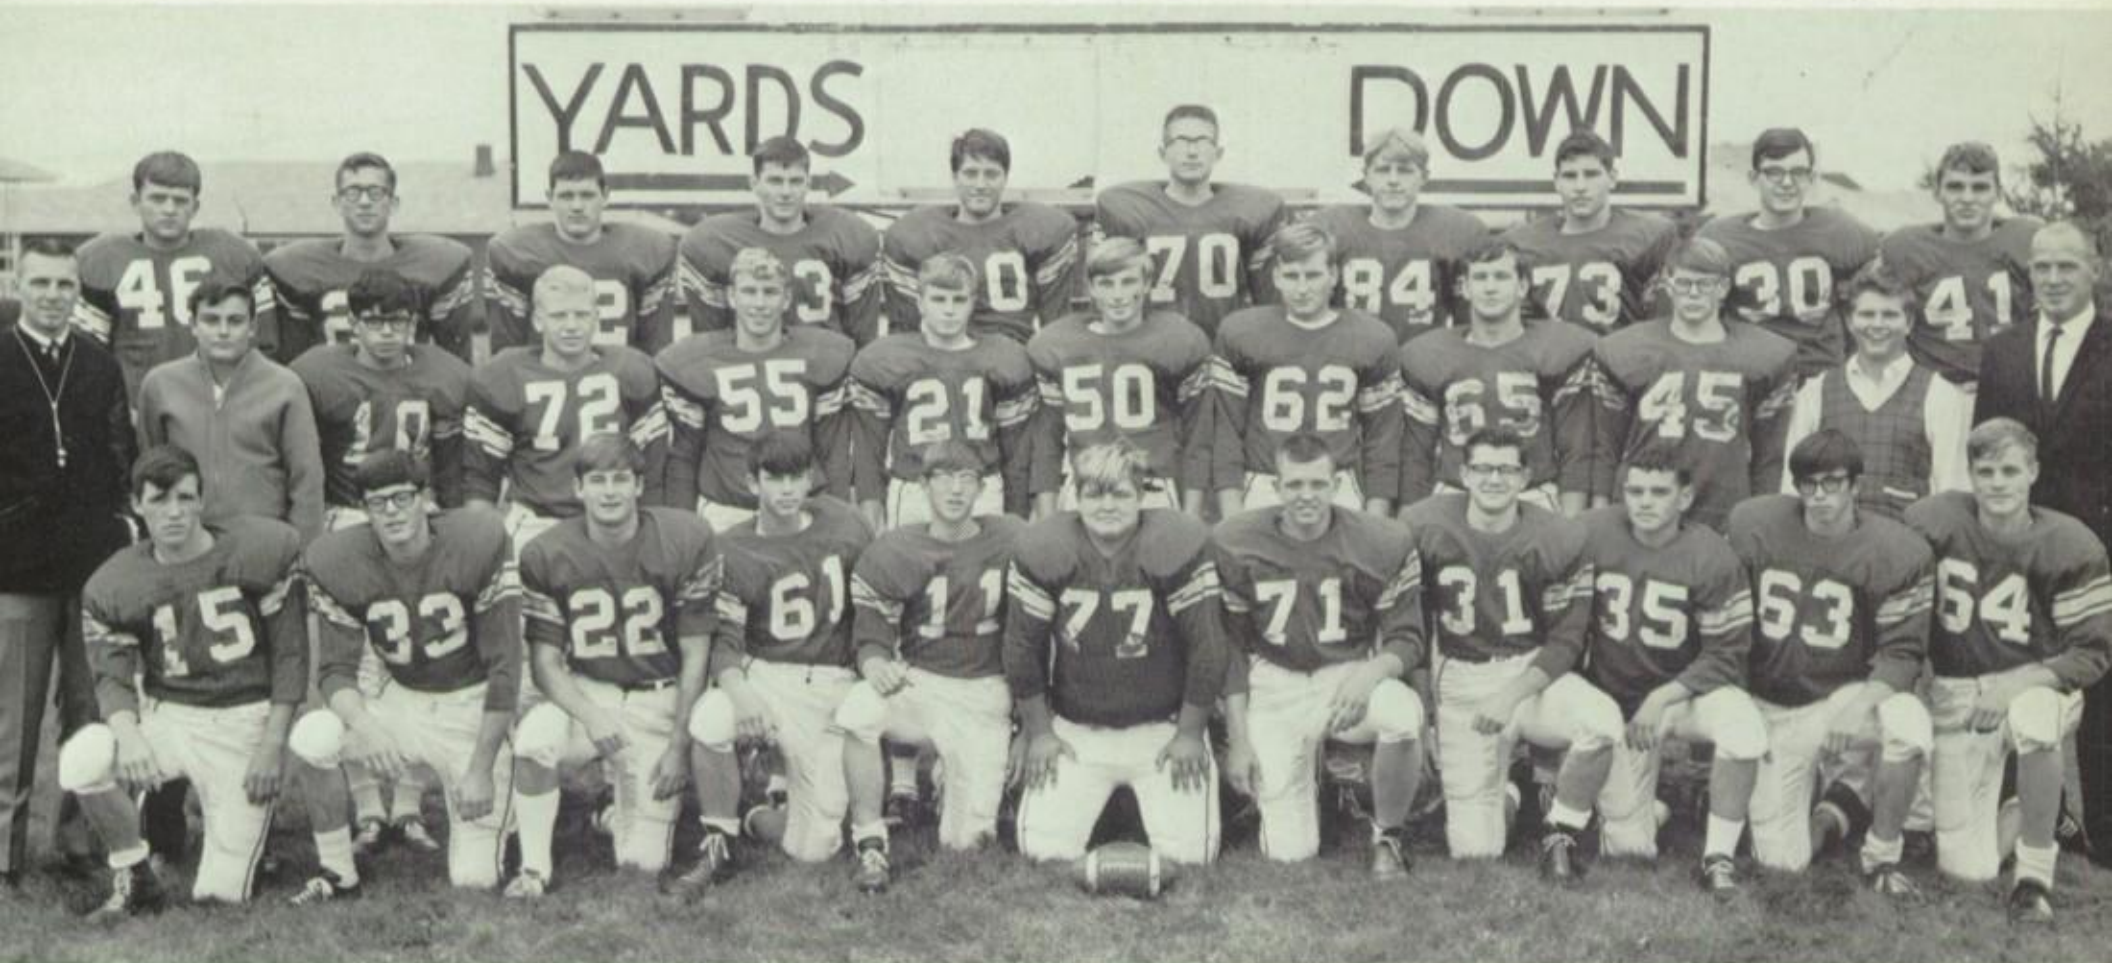

The cheerleaders and members of the pep club presented a mock cheering section which showed the behavior of individuals at a football game.

Huskies Close Season with 4-4-1

The Huskies ended their 1966 football season with a 4-4-1 record. The excitement of the season came when the Huskies took a Homecoming victory over New Hampton of 36-0. This was followed by a winning streak over East Buchanan and Cresco. The Huskies took fourth in the Northeast Iowa Conference.

The big disappointment came when Waverly slipped by Oelwein with a 14-6 victory. The Huskies played one of their best games and beat Waverly in everything but the final score.

Six boys on the team were picked for all-conference standings. Picked for first team were Chuck Garnder, tackle; Bob Rasmussen, running back; and Tony Perez and Gary Lau received honorable mention. Skip Borland and Bill Ottilie were picked for all-conference second team.

The Huskies have a pile up as they note something peculiar about a New Hampton player.

Skip Borland brings down a New Hampton player. Skip led the team in tackles during the season.

New Home Court for Husky Cagers

The Husky cagers felt more at home this year. Instead of traveling to Stanley for their home games, they now have a new gymnasium in which to meet their foe.

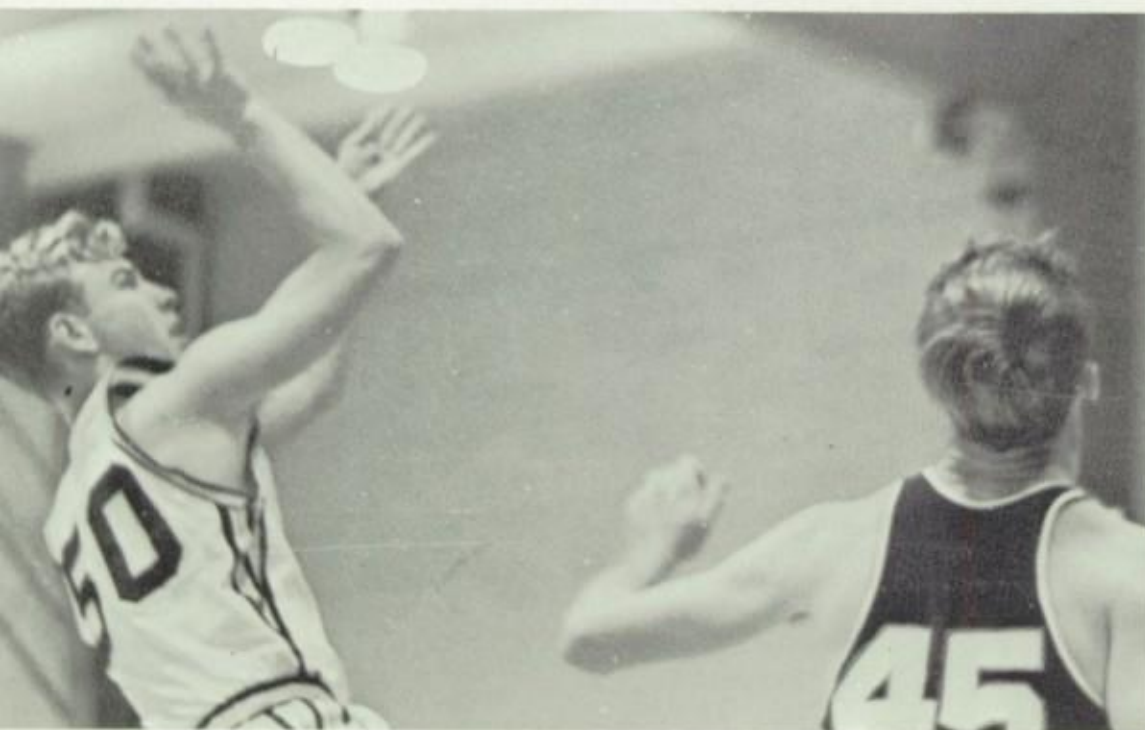

The most talked about game of the season was January 27, when the Huskies met the Waverly Go-Hawks for the first time in their new gym. With a sitting capacity of 2200, many people had to stand to watch these two teams battle for first place in the NEIC. The Go-Hawks emerged victorious 59-51.

The Huskies proved the better team against Cedar Rapids Regis. The Huskies played one of their finest games of the season and beat the Royals 66-44. Another outstanding game was February 18 when the Huskies beat West Waterloo, 84-60.

Bruce Shinneman aims for 2 points to add to the Husky score.

Jon Proctor seems to be the man of the moment as the crowd stares and the player guards him.

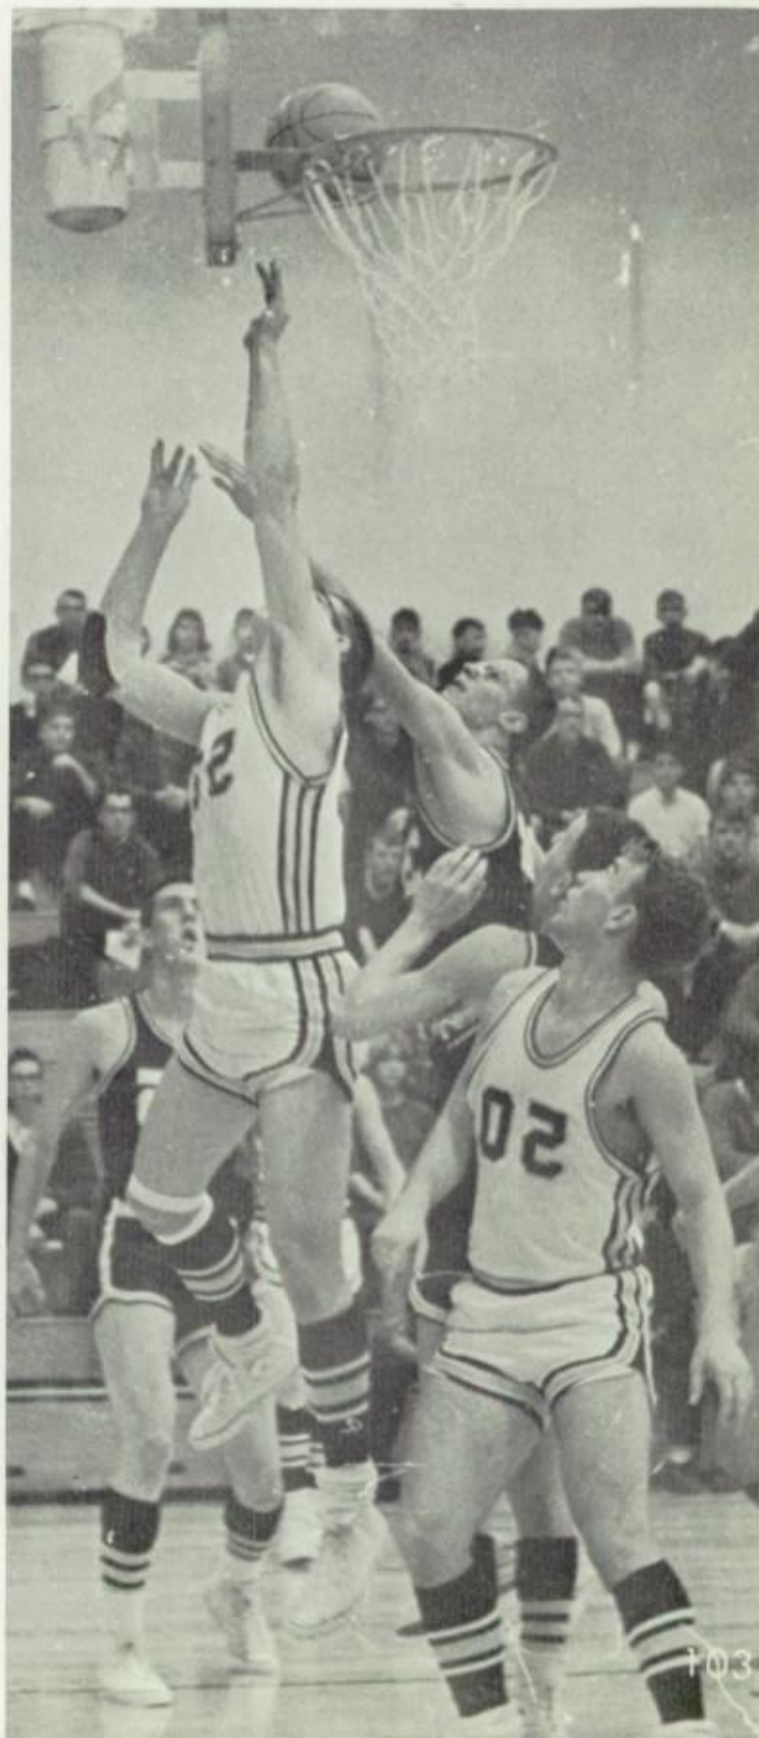

Skip Borland shoots for another two points to the dismay of his opponent.

Chuck Gardner takes advantage of his height as he goes up in the air for two more points.

Monte Barker pinned his opponent from Charles City to win first place in the NEIC tournaments. Barker, sophomore wrestler at 180 lbs., showed a lot of promise for the team in future years. He ended the season with a 12-1 record.

Gary Lau, senior wrestler at 165 lbs. took second place in the conference tournaments after being defeated in the championship round by a Charles City opponent. Gary also placed second at the sectional tournaments held at East Waterloo. He ended his season with a defeat at the first round district tournaments. His all season record was 13-3-2.

Steve Saathoff, 145 lb. grappler, is under a bit of pressure which is being applied by his Crestwood opponent.

Little 95 lb. wrestler, Jim Nolan, makes a big effort for a reversal against a Waverly Go-Hawk.

Concentration plays a big part for Bruce Sperry in his match against a Starmont wrestler. Sperry took third place in the NEIC tournaments in the 127 weight division.

First Conference Win in Seven Years

An inexperienced wrestling team and a coach in his first year accomplished what Husky mat squads have been unable to do since 1959. New Hampton was the victim of Oelwein's first NEIC wrestling win in seven years, 26-19.

Coach Mike Christenson described it as team effort, as they were out to win. A Husky wrestling team has not tasted victory in conference action since they defeated Decorah, 33-10 on January 27, 1959.

At the right is Mr. Carl Heller who is the guidance counselor at Junior High. He helps all the students as well as making sure that every ninth grade student has a meeting with him to help them decide on a Sophomore schedule. He also serves as a stand-in for Mr. Ramsey at times.

The English teachers at Junior High this year include: Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. McFarlane, Mrs. Stokesberry, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Poush. They teach the seventh and eighth graders grammar and serve the freshmen who have dared to enter the field of literature.

Mr. Schima, Mrs. Ramsdell and Mr. Butikofer make up the math department at Junior High, Mr. Schima teaches algebra and Mr. Butikofer and Mrs. Ramsdell are giving their students units on modern math.

The teachers pictured on these two pages teach most of the academic subjects at Junior High. Their careers represent many years of hard work and the Junior High students are happy to have such fine and understanding teachers helping them learn.

At the right are the science teachers. The seventh graders learn basic science, the eighth graders learn earth science, and the freshmen are taught physical science.

Science teachers at Junior High are Mr. Christensen, Mr. Arndt and Mr. Teufel.

Miss Groskurth is the homemaking teacher. It is required in seventh and eighth grades, but becomes an elective in ninth grade.

Sensor and School Board Lead Schools

At the right is the superintendent of the Oelwein Community Schools who is Mr. Arthur Sensor. He is looking over a Balalaika, a Russian musical instrument he brought to his children from behind the iron curtain. The instrument has three strings and comes in various sizes according to tone.

Mr. Sensor was chosen from all the Iowa superintendents to tour some Iron Curtain countries of Europe along with nearly seventy others. This was indeed a great experience for Mr. Sensor and a great honor to the Oelwein Schools.

"GOOD BOOKS ARE TRUE FRIENDS," THUS IN THE WORDS OF FRANCIS BACON WE GIVE YOU A BOOK, A BOOK, WHOSE CHAPTERS, WE HOPE, WILL BRING TO YOU THE PLEASANT MEMORIES OF THE YEAR JUST PAST. AS YOU LOOK OVER THE WALL OF YESTERDAY TO SEE THE GARDEN IN WHICH WE HAVE WORRIED AND PLAYED, WE WANT YOU TO SEE NOT ALONE THE FALLING OF THE AUTUMN LEAVES BUT ALSO THE FIRST GREEN BUDS OF SPRING.

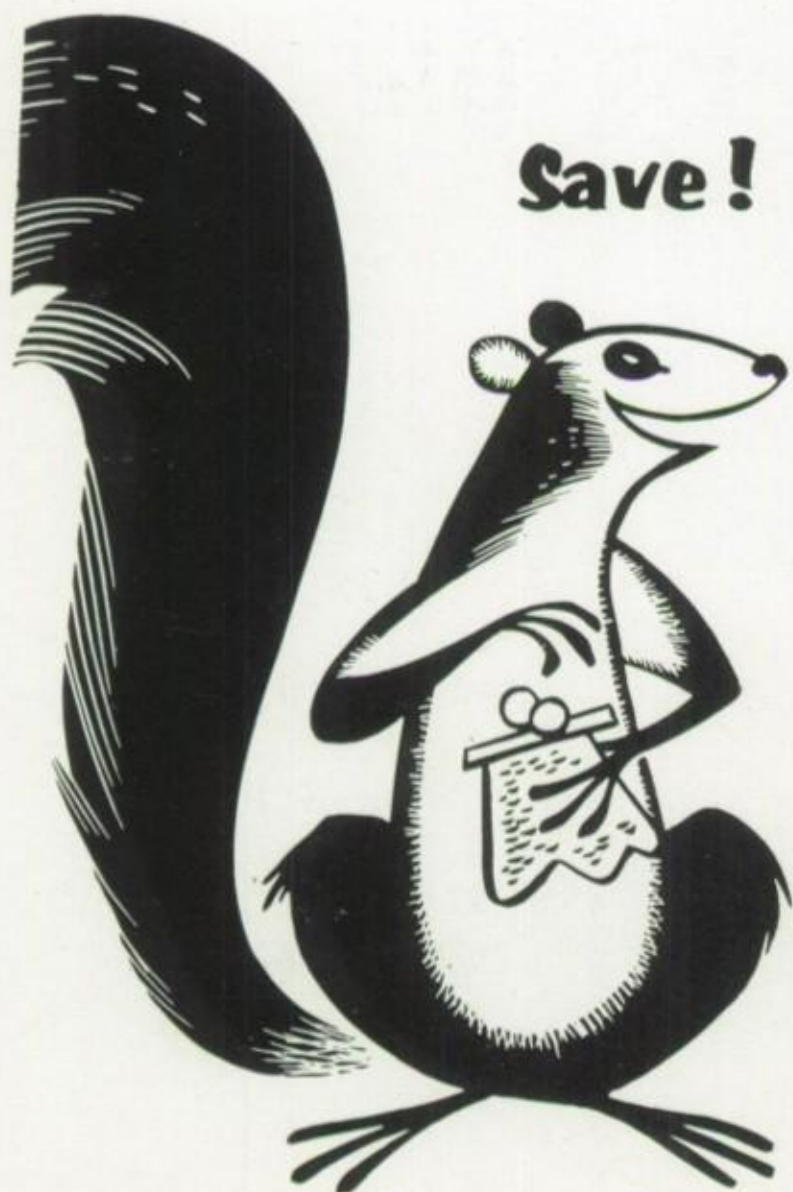

FOR THESE REASONS, WE GIVE TO YOU A BOOK - A FRIEND, TO WHO YOU MAY GO NOT ONLY TODAY, BUT TOMORROW. A FRIEND, WHO WILL SIT BY THE FIRE WITH YOU AND LEAD YOU DOWN THE WINDING ROAD OF YESTER-YEAR. A FRIEND WITH WHOM YOU MAY RECALL THE TEARS AND HEARTACHES WHICH LED TO JOYS, WHICH WE HAD NOT DARED TO VISION, ALL PAST.

'TIS TRUE WE'VE GROWN ONE YEAR OLDER, BUT WE'VE ALREADY GAINED A YEAR OF KNOWLEDGE, WISDOM AND CHARACTER, ALL OF WHICH WE NEED TO GUIDE US ONWARD TOWARD TOMORROW. AND YET, BECAUSE OF PLEASURE, FRIENDSHIPS AND GOOD TIMES WE WANT A REMINDER OF THE PAST - THIS BOOK - THIS FRIEND."

John

This is going to be a long one so don't hold your breath.

Think of all the fun we've had in school. We met in Junior High because of a mutual friend, Harry McCall, on 10th grade we saw little of each other but in 11th we had Chemistry together - and got caught & martialed. Every time I hear someone say "Let's leave early, I think of our much to the lunch line and watching pleasure and table tops. This year we had Physics together and had another year working with "Weld" Bell. Luckily he seems to have forgotten our little skipping. He's been great knowing you John and going camping with you and getting thrown in. (Well get you sometime you coward.

I hope to see you around, if you ever are home from work. Well, I guess we need about enough of your papers.

This is going to be the first, last, and only long signature I write this year, so feel honored.

Good luck in everything

Douglas "13"

John.
I'll, I guess
we made it through Physics! It was kind of bad but it was really were always pickin' on me.
I always got all the awful jobs.
Band was not much better. No.
Nash's personality just didn't turn me on.
Stay the sweet guy are right now
Keep smilin'! Always remember the dumb, long girl in Physics class.
Love ya
